CONCERNING THE GAME.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

By "Wideawake."

Rest in peace for one day at least may be the advice given to the one-eyed barracker, and the barracker who has two eyes, but only one lung, which is, however, of 20 h.p. capacity. There is no club premiership match to-day, and consequently the doings this afternoon do not possess that peculiar power of calling forth the vocal efforts of club partisans as on the occasion of pennant games, for the combined teams' engagements do not as a rule thrill the onlookers.

* * *

Nowadays a match must be a battle with the result having a bearing upon the season's club premiership in order to throw the spectators into the different stages of excitement, delight, interest, heated argument—and condemnation of the umpire.

* * *

Although it cannot be denied that the interest in the Interstate matches has grown to an intensity that is remarkable when one considers how they were viewed in the past.

* * *

People looked upon them with a feeling of good-natured indifference—as a kind of fixture which gave the players an opportunity of visiting Adelaide or Melbourne.

* * *

But the South Australians took the case more seriously, and the result is that they have improved their football in these yearly matches to such an extent as to make them really attractive.

Moreover, they have compelled Victoria to exercise care in their selection of a team. The Adelaideans are out this afternoon endeavouring to wrest from Victoria's eighteen the honours of the day, and to avenge the defeat of 6th July.

* * *

While our boys are in Adelaide upholding the flag, we welcome the lads from Bendigo, who have come to town to show the metropolitans how the game is played on the goldfields, and at Ballarat the League's banner is held out to the breeze against the chosen of Ballarat.

* * *

Ballarat considers its football equal, if not superior, to Bendigo's, and the Bendigonians have just the opposite opinion. Consequently the supporter of the game in both cities await the issue of to-day's battles—what may be termed the "try out" against the League—to settle the argument.

* * *

The League has earned the thanks of lacrosseurs for their action in leaving the Melbourne Cricket Ground for the men with the sticks, who are holding the Lacrosse Carnival there this afternoon. The League agreed to play the match against Bendigo at South Melbourne. It was a sporty action on the part of the footballers, and has been appreciated by the lacrosse people. I am sure those of the Bendigo team who have not been on the ground before today will be pleurably surprised, for they will find South Melbourne one of the prettiest playing grounds in Australia. I have seen them all, and I know none with more attractive surroundings of lake and field, and as to the club appointments, well, they are easily first.

"Yes," I hear some red (and white) hot Southerner remark. "And we will be first when the season ends. We are first now, and we'll stay there."

* * *

Perhaps they will, but we have a few weeks to wait for the proof of the prophecy. It certainly looks a good thing for either Carlton or South Melbourne. This is the pair I expect to see in the deciding engagement.

* * *

Strangely enough, both teams have received a shaking up from one—St. Kilda—that had not the ghost of a chance of securing a place as one of the Famous Four. South won only after a gruelling game a fortnight back, and so well did the Saints perform that many South Melbourne supporters who go in for that kind of thing backed them to beat Carlton, especially after the lucky escape of Carlton from being beaten by Melbourne.

* * *

And it looked for three quarters of the game as if the backers of St. Kilda were going to collect.

* * *

The seashiders are a fine team individually. The trouble is that there is too much individuality. More system is required, especially on the forward lines.

* * *

They played a hard, fast game, and were excellent in the ruck work. They held the lead for three quarters, and worked like niggers in the third term. But in doing so they let off too much steam, and the Carlton swirling rushes in the final quarter carried them off their feet, and the Blue Bird Contingent broke over the line eight times and St.

Kilda twice. Carlton got three goals out of their rushes, and turned what looked like defeat into victory by three points. It was a close shave, and St. Kilda had done remarkably well.

* * *

Melbourne had been knocking at the door, and had a faint hope that the doorminder of the second round would have said "Come in." On Saturday evening he said "No room here." Fitzroy had caused him to pass the remark.

* * *

That match was made doubly interesting in that it decided Melbourne's fate, and the leading goal-kickers, Freake and Brereton, were racing neck and neck for the distinction of being the season's champion marksman. Each was closely watched, but succeeded in scoring a goal apiece.

* * *

"Lions at home; doves in Melbourne." This is how a South Melbourne man referred to the Geelong team on the Thursday before the Geelong-Collingwood match. He added, "And when South get at them in Geelong we will be the lion tamers."

While no footballer is a dove (which is one of the most gentle of birds), or an angel for that matter, it certainly has been proved often enough this season that Geelong is a strangely consistent winning team on their own ground and peculiarly disappointing performers away from home.

* * *

It was a rattling game at Collingwood, and the magpies played so well as to strengthen the hopes of their supporters that history would repeat itself by the team being among the finishing four of the second round.

* * *

It must be stated to their credit that they have been playing pretty well up to old form in the outer field and back, but the forward lines are their weak

But, on the other hand, Essendon felt that they had reached the turn of the long lane. And so it proved.

It was noticeable that Essendon had not to fight particularly hard for their advantage. They won comfortably. By the way, the beaten side expressed themselves as pleased with the umpiring—a sentiment quite different from that expressed on the previous Saturday.

ROYAL ARCADE

The match in which the least interest was manifested was that at South Melbourne, where the leading team was opposed to University, the club lowest on the list. Up to half-time it was a fast, dashing game, full of interest and excitement, which, however, petered out in the third quarter, when South Melbourne let themselves out on the goals and put the issue beyond doubt.

* * *

All footballers are not good sailors. Richmond left on Monday for their tour of Tasmania, and although Mr. G. R. Peckham Beachcroft, the hon. sec., had made splendid arrangements, there was one which was beyond him—he could not induce Father Neptune to deal kindly with all the tourists.

A little bird brings me the message on wireless wings that one of the players averred that if there was a metalled road from Launceston to Melbourne he would rather walk back than have to suffer the qualms of mal de mer again.

The BEST and only the BEST!

WHAT CHAMPIONS REQUIRE.

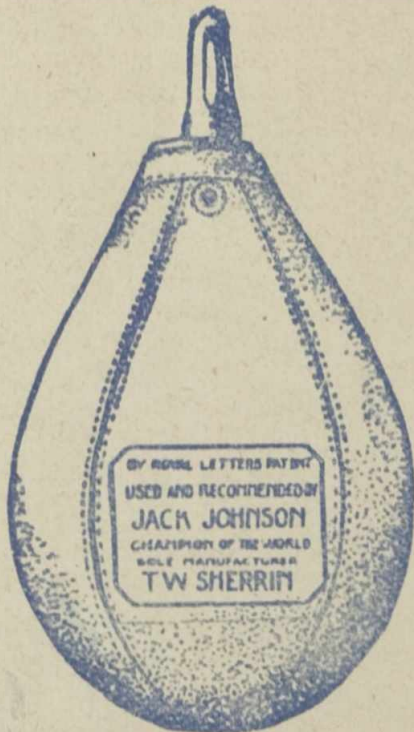

It is only natural that for the great and glorious Australian game the best of Australian goods should be manufactured by the best Australian maker.

T.W. SHERRIN

Acknowledged by all sporting institutions and champions,

BOXING, CRICKET, and FOOTBALL,

as the leading manufacturer of Australia. Testimonials as to the superiority of his sporting goods have been unhesitatingly given by the world's champions who have visited Australia from time to time during the last twenty years.

JACK JOHNSON, the world's champion pugilist, pronounces Sherrin's boxing gloves and punching balls better than any he has used in England or America. And the champion has used many in fighting his way to fame.

DICK LEE, who was for years the champion goal-kick, bears testimony to the superiority of the Sherrin ball.

The Footballers' Favorite.

The footballer has yet to be found who does not give the palm to the Sherrin ball as the best that can be kicked. The "Kangaroo" brand on each is the trade mark registered throughout the Commonwealth.

League clubs prefer the "Kangaroo" brand, and no club is considered complete without its supply of Sherrin's best.

THE AUSTRALASIAN FOOTBALL COUNCIL.

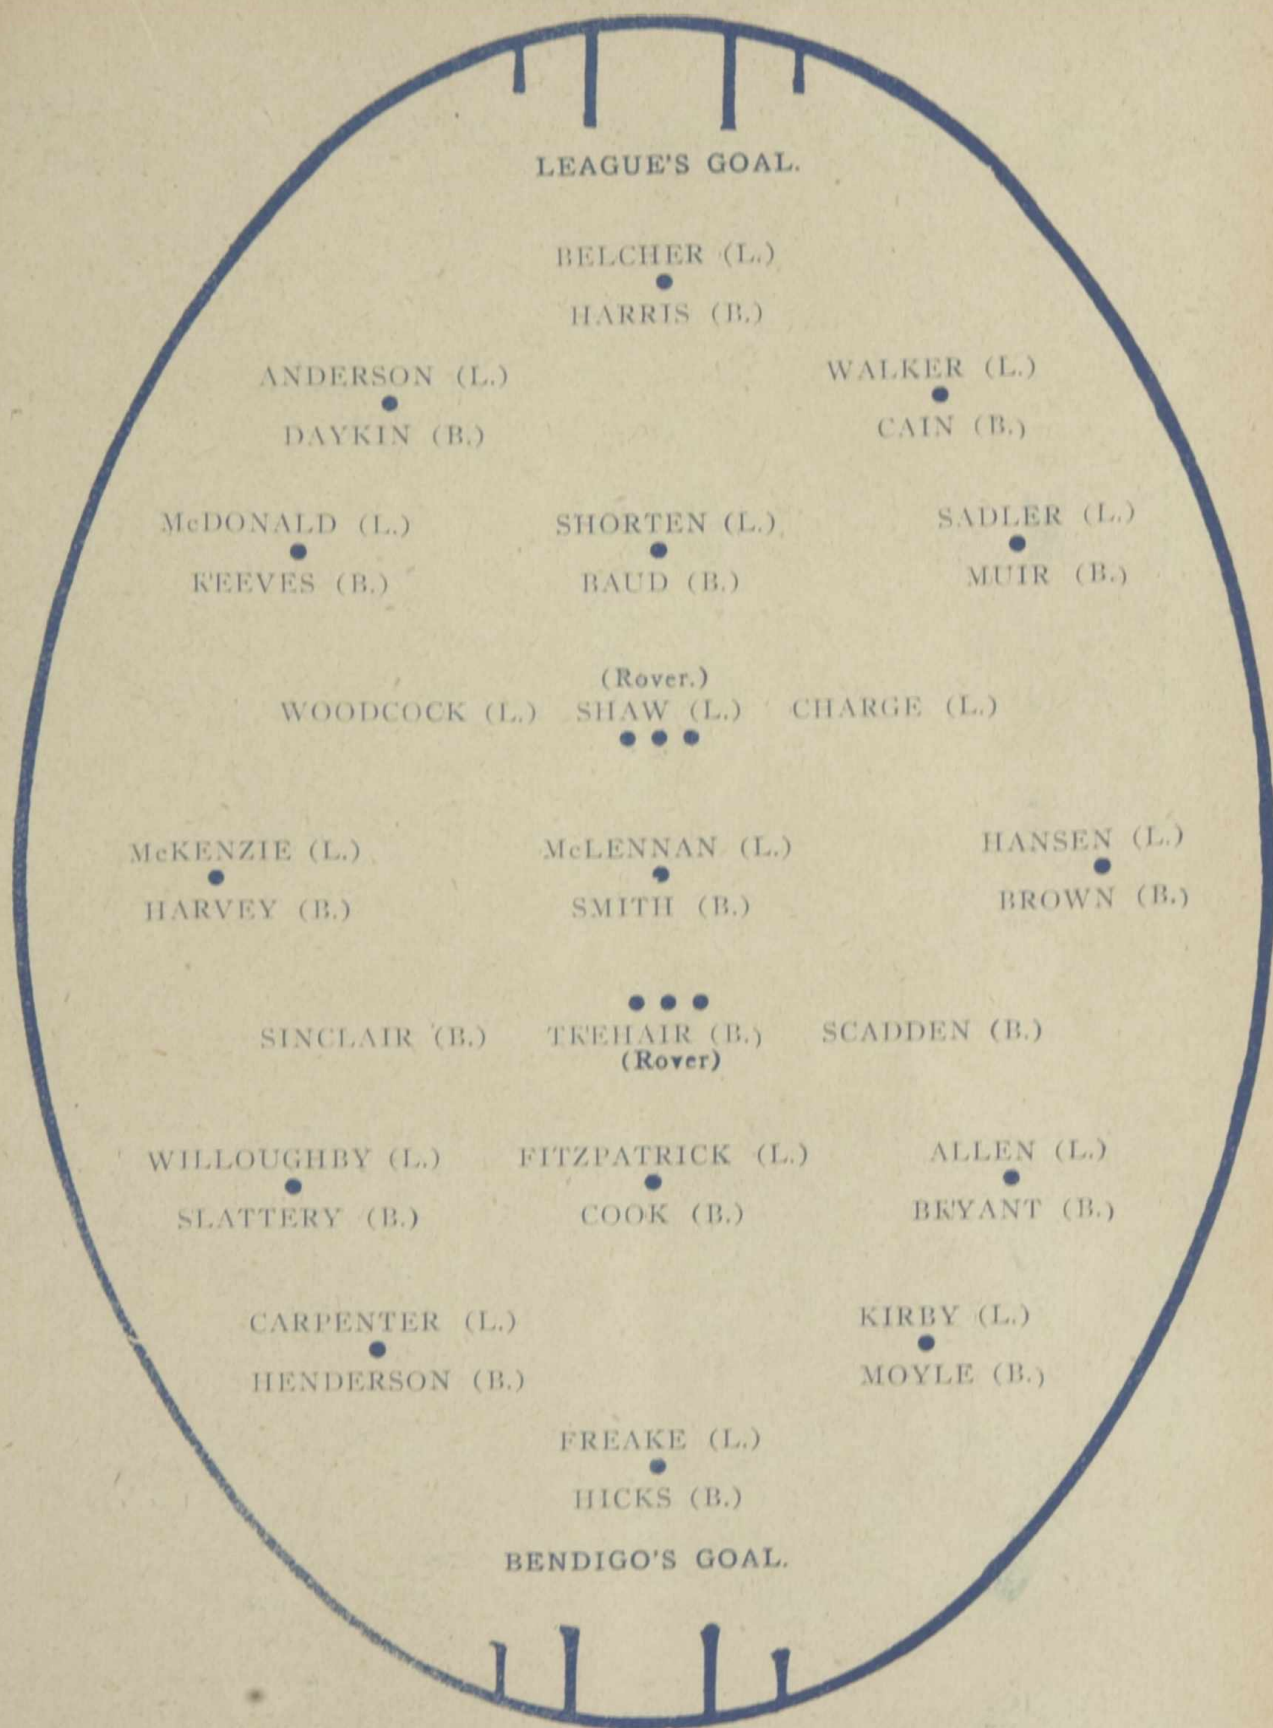

ever since the Interstate matches have been played have insisted on the use of the "Kangaroo" brand ball, and in the great carnival in Adelaide last year the pleasure of the players was increased by the knowledge that they were using balls from the Sherrin factory.

SHERRIN'S ATHLETIC GOODS

have won distinction at international and Interstate industrial exhibitions, among the awards being the Prize Medal and First Order of Merit in Adelaide, 1881; First Order of Merit, Melbourne, 1879-80; and the Diploma of Merit, Centennial Exhibition, 1888-89.

MEN OF THE TIME.

PLAYERS AND PEOPLE TALKED ABOUT.

By "Chatterer."

What price the Willy Boy as a barracker? At East Melbourne on Saturday an Essendon man shied for goal, but did not put enough driving power into his kick. "Oh!" exclaimed the spectator with a furry hat and Joseph's coat kind of socks, "that kick was too genteel." One felt that Gussy would have given him a slap on the hand if he were near the player, just to show his indignation.

* * *

Many players have an idea that it is necessary when they begin to run with the ball to bounce it immediately. I noticed Clarry Hill, of Richmond, do this two or three times on Saturday. A man can run ten yards with it before he strikes the ball on the ground.

* * *

Umpire Norder calls out the "Whaffor" when awarding free kicks. At East Melbourne Reeves was grabbed and got the free. "Held by the leg," shouted the umpire. And the crowd, who saw the Essendon player hanging on to Reeves' limb like a tug of war puller, laughed loudly.

* * *

A brainy player is Pat Shea. He is as quick as many and quicker than most men to take in the possibilities. In the second quarter of the Richmond-Essendon flutter Richmond were attacking hard, and Billy Griffith ran out to stave them off. Immediately Shea darted between goals, and got there in time to prevent Hall scoring with a quick dash.

* * *

The foothold at East Melbourne was slippery on Saturday, and the players slid and fell like beginners on roller skates. In the last quarter Richmond were attacking, and Dan O'Brien fell opposite the pavilion. Fred Baring seized the ball and started a defence gallop. O'Brien curled up on the ground just in front of him. Baring jumped over him and got the ball away to safety. It was a clever act, and was rewarded with cheers.

* * *

Richmond's last goal was scored in a lucky fashion. They were pressing right up to the posts and Griffith fell. Rush threw out his right foot not more than a yard from goal and swung the ball through.

* * *

Alan Belcher, the Essendon captain, received a ringing cheer on reappearing at the head of his men at East Melbourne. The broken toe did not prevent him from playing a grand game half-back.

* * *

Jim Martin is far below form just now, and the erstwhile idol of the Essendon barracker on Saturday had to submit to a good deal of banter from the crowd that once cheered him wildly.

* * *

An injured leg and a knock respectively had a great effect on James and Herbert, the clinking ruck men of Richmond.

* * *

Ernie Cameron gave the best game against Richmond that he has shown for some time. He was great. Baring, too, was in better form than he has displayed since his injury at Collingwood.

* * *

The work of Billy Sewart (midfield) was extra fine against Richmond.

* * *

Sellars brought down a pair of magnificent marks against Carlton. He went into the air behind a pack and got the ball each time. From one mark he scored a goal, but the other shot missed.

* * *

Lynch showed a fine capacity for high marking at St. Kilda. On one occasion Eicke cut through the air like a rocket—and came down like the stick.

* * *

Cumberland was again in rare buckle for St. Kilda against Carlton. His work was interesting and exceedingly clever right through the game.

* * *

Andy McDonald, the dashing half-back of Carlton, was a big factor in the success of the side on Saturday, and W. Dick was, as usual, the safe and brilliant worker centre half-back.

* * *

The wing play of Percy Gibb against Geelong was another example of the fine form he is in this season. He made several great runs, finishing off with a telling kick right into the forward lines.

* * *

Les Hughes and Minogue were wonderfully effective battlers in the ruck for Collingwood. When in the attack position Hughes scored a brace of goals.

* * *

Jackson gave a fine display on the centre wing at Collingwood. Gilchrist (forward) deserves complimentary reference.

* * *

Regret was expressed on all sides when it became known that Jack Wells had been injured and could not go to Adelaide with the Victorian team, of which he had been appointed captain. Cumberland was taken into the team for his place in the ruck.

Geelong were proud of the performance of Marsham, their tall ruck man, His work was of the very best at Victoria Park.

* * *

No man in the match played a harder game than Joe Slater, the popular Geelong man. He works all day, takes the buffetings with a smile, and walks in tired but still smiling.

* * *

The Eason brothers were like a pair of stars on the theatrical stage. They were clever, fast and entertaining with their football against Collingwood.

* * *

Milne again proved himself one of the mainstays of South Melbourne against University. Boxer is a rare power in the ruck, and Russick, as his rover, was especially fine.

* * *

Little Dick Casey was as cute and clever as it was possible to be against University.

* * *

Willis and Brake were the pick of the University side at South Melbourne. Both were in superb form.

* * *

Goals were scored in the following order in the Fitzroy and Melbourne match:—Parratt, Willoughby, Joolan, Maguire, Freake, Politz, Politz, P. Heron, Brereton, Lenne, Allan, Lenne.

* * *

At different periods of the game eight players were temporarily disabled, as follows: First quarter, Freake, McKenzie; second, Maguire, Willoughby; third, Brereton, Politz; last, Hendrie, George. The last named had his jaw put out.

* * *

The scintillating star of the match was undoubtedly Melb.'s midget wingster, McKenzie, who, though he received a bad knock early in the game, played desperately hard all through, his meteoric flashes earning him the admiration of everybody.

* * *

Fitzroy's most able exponent was Strownix, whose marking and kicking were exceedingly fine. Next to him Norris was always doing good work. Roy's ruck had the call over their opponents.

* * *

Parratt was easily the best of the forwards, and gave Melbourne's backs no end of trouble. Little Shaw was a busy rover, whilst the pick of the backs were Cooper, Bamford, Lambert and Walker.
